TO FIND LITERACY RESOURCES:

1. Visit https://safari.cps.edu
2. Log in using your CPS account
3. Start searching by topic and grade range
4. Or search by Illinois Learning Standards for English Language Arts/Literacy or Illinois Early Learning and Development Standards for Language Arts

The videos available via the SAFARI Montage Learning Object Repository (LOR) are correlated to academic standards, and include extensive metadata to ensure users can find exactly the clip they need. All video titles have been segmented into chapters and key concepts and many include a quiz, closed-captioning, a teacher's guide and a Spanish language track. The LOR also includes over 1,600 free and open educational resources covering Pre-K–12 literacy subjects, including YouTube hosted video links, eBooks, images, documents and web links.

Note: Videos accessed through web links are owned and licensed by Crash Course, Flocabulary LLC, Fresberg Cartoon, Harry Kindergarten Music, Scholastic Channel, Smrt English, SpokenVerse, Storyline Online and Ted-Ed – all independent third parties that do not endorse or sponsor SAFARI Montage products
